The Jewish Tribune is the oldest established weekly paper serving the Orthodox community.

It began publishing in 1962 and since then each week it provides a varied digest of high quality local, national and international news.

In addition it includes features for all of the family and throughout the year publishes a series of supplements.

REGULAR FEATURES

On a weekly basis, the following are key features which are keenly followed by our diverse readers.

OUR READERS

The Jewish Tribune reaches a cross-section of the community nationwide who appreciate its broad coverage of news and features, as well as all the latest developments in business and technology.

Circulation consists of 4,500 print copies.

Families are a key component of our readership.

The average family consists of 7-8 members.

Most of these are homeowners with large amounts of disposable income. The majority also own cars and travel abroad regularly.

For many of them, the Jewish Tribune is the only news media read each week.

AVAILABILITY

The Jewish Tribune is sold every week in many outlets including newsagents, supermarkets and Jewish Stores throughout the country as well being available by subscription.
